

Extra protection, when needed.

Safety and accessibility play a crucial role in a bathroom environment and installing grab rails is an effective way to create confidence for those users who may need some extra assistance.

Peened grab rails offer added protection as this process significantly enhances the gripping surface of the grab rail by increasing friction thus reducing slippage and falls.

Metlam Australia has an extensive range of peened grab rails well suited for individuals with impaired strength.

To view our complete range visit www.metlam.com.au

For more information contact our friendly customer service team on

1300 metlam (1300 638 526)
Email: sales@metlam.com.au